The Referral Process

An outpatient referral can be made by a physician, an insurance case manager, a social worker from an acute-care hospital, a patient or a family member. A physician's prescription is required. For information about Bryn Mawr Rehab Outpatient Network's services and locations, please call (610) 526-HELP or check our web site at www.brynmawrrehab.org. Patient physician representatives can assist with insurance questions, other payment arrangements and transportation needs.

Outpatient Network

Bryn Mawr Rehab Outpatient Network provides physical, occupational and speech therapy services for patients of all ages at eight convenient locations in Philadelphia's western suburbs – in Audubon, Broomall, Bryn Mawr, Collegeville, Malvern, Newtown Square, Paoli and Wynnewood.

The Outpatient Network offers hands-on, personalized care from skilled, experienced therapists. We have the necessary resources and state-of-the-art equipment to help each patient reach optimal function quickly, comfortably and cost-effectively. We also work closely with physicians and insurance carriers to develop treatment plans that give patients the best possible chance of fully returning to their everyday lives following injury or illness.

The wide range of outpatient therapy services offered through the network includes acute work-injury rehabilitation, sports medicine and hand therapy.
